Ross Nolan Boatright, Sr., died November 2, 2005. He was born December 18, 1923.

Visitation will be held at Coleman Funeral Home on Friday, November 4, 2005 from 5 p.m.-8 p.m.; Saturday, November 5, 2005 from 5 p.m.-8 p.m.; Sunday, November 6, 2005, 12 noon-2 p.m. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Sunday, November 5, 2005, at Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with burial at Oxford Memorial Cemetery.

He leaves his wife of 20 years, Dot Boatright, a son, Ross Nolan Boatright, Jr., a daughter, Sandra Boatright Roy. He leaves his sister, Bonnie Wolfe and many cousins. He also leaves his grandchildren, Amanda Boatright Edwards, Melissa Roy Cannon, and Margaret Jean Boatright; his grandchildren, Ashley Boatright and Emily Boatright. Also, extended family, Fred Shirley, Judy Inman, Sherry Hall, and Lisa Chambers.

He leaves grandchildren, Chip and Amy Shirley, Heather and Matt Hall, Chris Hudson, Amanda Hudson, Jessica Chambers; one great-grandchild, Hunter Shirley of Courtland, MS.

He was a veteran of World War II of which he was awarded two silver stars and one purple heart for bravery. He was an educator, a business man, a farmer, a past member of the Lions Club of Oxford, a past Alderman-at-Large of Oxford; he was instrumental in getting our first Hill-Burton Hospital (now Baptist Memorial Hospital). He was a salesman in later years for Custom Signs, Batesville, MS. He will be sorely missed.
