“ Sandy, my Sister in Christ, my very first friend in life. We lived next door to each other & went to school together throughout our childhood. We both shared the same health issue, asthma as kids which we both hated but muddled thru its challenges. Sandy would always say it will just make us stronger. She was a positive person & gave encouragement when you needed it.

As children we would turn an old washtub upside down & stand on top of it using it as our stage for our talent show competitions with our younger sisters & others. We both loved to sing but from the beginning I knew she was the singer and not me.

Sandy was soft spoken with a wonderful laugh that puts a smile on my face just remembering it. She was a beautiful soul with a beautiful smile, full of understanding & compassion for others. She always pushed through her own struggles in life to be there for others in their times of need.

May God hold your Family in His loving arms until we meet again.
