

Sandra Baker Sterling

September 24, 1971 - January 3, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Mrs. Sandra Baker Sterling, 50, passed away January 3, 2022 at Regional One Medical Center in Memphis, Tennessee. Her family will receive friends on Saturday, January 8 from 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at Cornerstone Church (5998 Elmore Road, Southaven, Mississippi). A memorial service will be conducted while the family receives friends Saturday, January 8, at 12:30 p.m., also at Cornerstone Church. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS 38672) is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Sterling was born September 24, 1971, in Louisville, KY with an amazingly loving and special spirit. Her family was her life, her pride, and her joy, she loved each one immensely, particularly her granddaughter, Melody. Sandra was a selfless and kind soul – always putting others before herself. Sandra was a true woman of God and lifelong Baptist. She had an unwavering faith and spirituality. Always a hard worker, she went back to school in her adult years and intended to graduate from Liberty University, in May 2022, with a Bachelor's Degree in Counseling. She will truly be missed by all who knew her.

Mrs. Sandra Sterling is survived by her loving husband, Kirk A. Sterling of Olive Branch, MS; her five children, Victoria "Peepers" Pruett of Olive Branch, Jayde Sterling of Tempe, AZ, Gabriel Pruett of Louisville, Noah Sterling of Jacksonville, FL, and Rae Sterling of Olive Branch; her mother, Janet Baker of Louisville, her sister, Tammy (David Claycomb) Baker of Louisville, and many nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Mrs. Sterling was preceded in death by her father, Charles M. Baker.

Donations and memorials in honor of Mrs. Sandra Sterling may be made to Samaritan's Purse (<https://www.samaritanspurse.org/>)

Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.
