“ I was not prepared for the cal I got from Cassidy last Wednesday. Scot and myself were brothers both as SAE's and in life, we had a friendship that lasted since 1972. We shared many a cold morning in a duck blind and a lot of fishing. He knew I was broken hearted after losing my labrado and flew to Seattle to pick up a knew puppy and bring it to North Carolina. We stayed in touch over the years and he came to North Carolina on many occasions to hunt and fish and visit. I loved him as a brother and will miss him. I am also praying for Rosemary's recovery and Cassidy.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Scotty and working with him throughout our airline careers...from Southern Airways to Delta Airlines. He could always bring a smile to my face and always remember how he loved his family and how proud of his daughter Cassidy he was. We could talk for hours about fishing and hunting. Rest in peace my friend.

Rosemary, every time I saw Scott he was smiling. I know you are feeling grief over his loss.No words can help you feel better right now, but talking about Scott with others who knew him may help at some time.It helped me most to share memories of Jim when I lost him.I'm sorry you haven't been able to be with Cassidy, but your negative test may allow you to see her soon. You have been in my thoughts every day. Susan Russell
