

Scott Franklin

April 26, 2010

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Jonathan Scott Franklin, 36, died Monday, April 26, 2010, near Oxford, MS.

Born in Tupelo, MS, Scott had live in the Oxford area his entire lifetime. He was an honors graduate from the Itawamba Community College HVAC program and was self-employed in the heating and air conditioning business. An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed hunting and fishing. Scott especially took pleasure in spending time with his two sons and his friends, who were like a second family to him. Scott was a member of the National Homebuilders Association. He attended First Baptist Church of Abbeville.

Visitation will be held Thursday, April 29, 2010, 4:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Friday, April 30, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with Bro Randy Hope and Fish Robinson officiating. Interment will be in the Garden of Memories at Coleman Funeral Home. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include two sons, Hunter Franklin and Brady Franklin, both of Oxford, MS; his parents, Jerry and Brenda Franklin of Oxford, MS; one brother, Stacy Franklin of Oxford, MS; three uncles, Dr. Dan (Marilyn) Moore and Steve (Selina) Moore, both of Fulton, MS and Larry Franklin of Sulligent, AL.

Mr. Franklin was preceded in death by his grandparents, Gaston & Jean Moore and Lonnie & Flora Franklin; one uncle, Mitchell Moore.
