Great Job! Lots of great memories and love shown here! May the Good Lord send his Angels down today and hold each and everyone of you in their arms and give you strength and peace through the coming years.... It's SO hard to loose a parent, but your father was not just a parent he was your friend. May God bless you all! Rest in Peace Shelly!

Great but sad video. Shelly Taylor was so full of life, laughter & love. You couldn't help but like him instantly!!! In school I took cosmetology so Shelly was brave and started letting me cut his hair all the time. We had so much fun !! Shelly called me not long ago & we talked a lil while. He said he was gonna call so we could get together & catch up, I hate we won't get that chance now, you will be missed Shelley. Love you,

Beautiful video that shows how much he loved his family and friends and how much he was loved! Shelly was the nicest person ever growing up! We all ran around together going to East End skating rink every week, dancing , video adventure, or just hanging out at McDonalds on Perkins! He always had such a calm nature about him! A true friend to many! So glad I got to hang out and talk to him at our last class reunion...love you Shelly Taylor! Rest in Peace my friend!
