Shirley was remembered by her family for her love of enjoying life and all that it offered her. She loved spending time with her grandchildren and was devoted to their lives. When not putting her family first, Shirley could be found in the stands of any Ole Miss sporting event as well as being on campus enjoying the beauties of the Grove. The students whose lives she touched may even refer to her as their "Oxford Mom". She leaves behind the memories of her love for gardening and fishing. Shirley will be missed by those whose lives she touched.

She is survived by her daughter, Tisha (Brad) Grammer; her son, Chris

(Ashley) Ivey; her grandchildren, Jhett Ivey, Brighton Grammer, Haylee Reynolds, Mason Hardin, Liam Stuart, Maddie Stewart, and Andrew Stewart; her brothers, Charles (Dora) Adcock and John C. Adcock; her sisters, Teri (Graig) Lesley, and Margaret McGraw (Mike); and her fiancé, Garth Stewart.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John Chandler and Bernice Estelle Adcock; her husband, Butch Ivey; her brothers, Benny Adcock, J.T. Adcock, and Jimmy Adcock; and her sisters Onita Hall, Kathy Kittrell; and her sister-in-law Sylvia Adcock.

In lieu of donations, flowers can be sent to Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford (601 Commerce Parkway Oxford, MS 38655) for the visitation and funeral, and/or to Rolling Creek Baptist Church Life Center (1650 Clarke County Road 345 Quitman, MS 39355) for the visitation and graveside.
