

Mr. Shural Quay Sneed

May 29, 1943 - August 14, 2017

Mr. Shural Quay Sneed, 74, passed away Monday, August 14, 2017, at Oxford Health and Rehab, after an extended illness.

Born to Quay Dudley Sneed and Opal Russell Sneed, Mr. Sneed grew up in Hurricane, MS. He attended Central High School in Jackson, MS, and Hinds Junior College in Raymond, MS. He worked for East Ford in Jackson before joining his parents in Grenada, MS, and then Oxford. He retired from the City of Oxford after 23 years and was the owner of Shural's Beef House Restaurant at College Hill. After retirement he lived with his sister and took care of the myriad of maintenance there. He enjoyed woodworking, watching classic movies, antique cars, and visiting with his sister in the evenings. He had a gorgeous and giving heart and will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

A graveside service will be held Saturday, August 19, 2017, at 2:00 pm at the Old Union Nazarene Church Cemetery in Thaxton, MS. Bro. David Bodenheimer will officiate.

He is survived by one sister, Cathy Bass of Oxford; one nephew, Duncan Bass of Chicago, IL; and one aunt, Evelyn Russell of Oxford.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Memorials and donations may be made in Mr. Sneed's honor to the donor's choice of The American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 8217, Jackson, MS 39284-8217 or The Old Union Cemetery Fund, in care of Bobby Russell, 95 Holly Lane, Thaxton, MS 38871.
