

Sidney Homer Carter

February 10, 2015

On February 10, 2015, Sidney Homer Carter, at 103 years of age, moved on to his heavenly home. He was born in Sioux City Iowa to Homer and Nellie Carter July 3, 1911. He lived in Milwaukee, Wisconsin most of his life, but has lived in Independence, MS. for the last 3 years. He was employed by General Electric in Chicago and Milwaukee for 42 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 71 years, Virginia White who died May 8, 2007, his son Wayne , three brothers and a sister.

He is survived by his daughter, Diane Wilhite of Independence, MS., four granddaughters, Donna Sherman of Muskego, WI., Laura Sherman of Independence, MS., Nancy Norcisa (Steve) of Milwaukee, WI and Susan Ricks, (Daryl) of Independence, MS., 9 great grandchildren and 9 great great grandchildren.

Mr. Carter and his wife enjoyed square dancing for many years, and working with the young people in the Bay View United Methodist Church. Mr. Carter enjoyed classical music, stamp collecting, wood carving, reading the bible, visiting art galleries and playing tennis. He was active in Indian Guides and Jr. Achievement with his son Wayne. He was "raised" as a Master Mason and attended Lake Lodge in Milwaukee, and was an Associate Guardian in Job's Daughters with his daughter Diane, a Job's Daughter. After his retirement from General Electric the Carters escaped the cold Wisconsin winters and lived in their travel trailer in Fort Myers Florida. He has enjoyed being with his Mississippi family members these last 3 years.

There will be a memorial service at the Independence United Methodist Church on Sycamore Road off Hwy 305 in Independence, MS on February 13, at 11 a.m. Another Memorial Service and interment will be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent if desired, to the Independence U.M. Church (P.O. Box 152 Independence, MS. 38618) for the multi-purpose building fund.

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch, 662-893-3900.