“ It still feel like I'm dreaming. I can't believe you are gone.. I have so many memories with you, I could set here all year and write and write and write..! Lid will never be the same without you, Mama.. May your beautiful soul rest in peice, I can only Imagine how you felt when you walked through them Pearly Gates, no pain, no suffering, no betrayal, love, joy, happiness, energy, breathe, as amazing everlasting life with Jesus himself, you can now Dance in the Sky while you watch over us.. You will always be in my heart,, you may be gone but definitely never forgotten.. R.I.P Mama.. 'Til we meet again--!

“ My first cousin. We miss seeing her when for one reason or the other we were all together. I'm sure grandma Poynor was glad to see her "Tuffy" when she arrived to be with them, and grandpa Poynor will enjoy her being there too. Although She will be missed by many, she is happy and resting now. Sending prayers..

“ I remember when I lived with them on highway 6 between Batesville and Marks we was staying up talking and drinking coffee, and she felt something run across her foot and we looked under the table and didn't see anything and then I felt it run across mine and I screamed and ran she jumped in the middle of the table yelling for Dwight and I grab his arm and told him it was something with claws ran across our feet and she still in the middle of the table and I'm behind him and she is yelling at him "GET IT GET IT", and he told he that he didn't see anything whatever it was it was gone and she went to step down it came running out from behind the garbage can and back to the table she went. Lmao, it was a big ass field rat that was tormenting us and Dwight tried to get it and she jumped off the table to on his back and it took us a couple of days to back into the kitchen. Lol I will never forget that day. Stephanie was a good,fun out going person,and she will be missed dearly.
