“ Hi Steve, miss you. My memories begin with school. You were a shy person, but always had a smile. I remember when your family home burned down. Luckily you all got out safely. Fast forward found you on fastbook. You called me kiddo. We would talk about everything. School days, Government, your diabetes, your love for Janet. She was your everything. I went awol on Facebook for a couple weeks. I didn't know you were in the hospital. I truly miss you my friend.

“ Janet, you know my prayers are with you and I am here for you at ANYtime of the day or night. I am sure gonna miss my buddy. I always enjoyed the visits and Steve always made me laugh. Loved him like a brother. He was such an awesome guy and there was no doubt in anyone's mind how he loved you. I could be down and come by and leave laughing. He was a real jewel. Don't know how anyone could not love this guy. Remember my job now and I can just hear him telling me what I am supposed to do. You will NEVER be alone. God is with you and I will be there at anytime. My prayers are with you and I pray that you feel God's loving arms of peace and comfort around you to help ease some of the pain. You are NOT alone--just remember that. Love you much and loved my buddy.

“ Steve, my friend I will miss you. In a blink of an eye you were gone. I remember the shy boy at school who sat across from me. The fire that you had as a kid. Reconnecting on Facebook you became family and I called you bro. I will miss our talks. I am in shock that I can't believe it. I wish I could talk to you one more time. Be at peace my friend until I see you in heaven. You stinker, why did you have to go. Love you!

“ I only met him a few times, but he seem like a wonderful person. I never saw him without his wife. I am new to the auction family and I can say he really looked liked he thoroughly enjoyed it. “ He sure did love his wife and family. I'll never forget Janet bringing him to our estate sales and he loved coming. Sometimes he didn't really feel like getting out of the car but he did anyway. If you met him you loved him. He still had that fabulous New Yorker accent. He was loved by many and will be missed by all.
