“ Barbara, Elaine, Marilyn, Tina and Pete, I am so sorry that I was not able to attend the services of your mom. She and I had become real friends at the beauty shop over the past few years; until I got to where I was unable to get out. I know we had a history from me coming to your home when we were teenagers too. I had really got to enjoy being around her visiting with her and laughing. I had known her for many years and she was a very special lady! I know you guys will miss her dearly! I pray for each of you that GOD puts his loving arms around you and give you the love, peace and strength to get through the days ahead. I love you guys

“ I first met Mrs. Brummett when I went to Lafayette in 1979 as the drama teacher. I had Tina in my class and she was the most supportive drama parent I had ever seen. Tina was so enthralled with acting and she brought her mom right along. If we went to a musical in Memphis, Mrs. Brummett supported Tina going. One time I was going through the lunch line, she leaned across and said that she and Tina had gone to see ALL THAT JAZZ (Bob Fosse movie). I asked if she liked it. She said it was a shock: that she didn't know how much nudity would be in it!! We had a good laugh. That is one of the best memories of her: interested in life and supporting Tina's love of performing. A fine lady, for sure. Love to her and all, MRS S

“ Mrs. Sue ,was one of the sweetest and kindest ladies that you would ever meet. She lived her life for the Lord in talking ,teaching in every way. She had a knowledge of the Bible that showed when she taught Sunday School. She was loved by everyone. She was certainly a Proverbs 31,woman ,wife ,grandmother and friend. You'll be missed Ms Sue.
