“ Richey and I will miss Ms. Sue dearly. She was such a wonderful person. I am still in shock. It just doesn't seem like she should be gone from all of us that love her. I went to see her in the hospital and she was always calling Wendy (trouble) and I her baby girls. One thing everyone needs to know is the ICU nurse gave her a new nickname Spicy quesadila. Much love and prayers for the family. We are here if anyone needs us. R.I.P. Ms. Sue until we meet again one day. Love Andrea and Richey Roberts

“ Michael and I loved Mrs Sue to pieces. We met during our time serving at Bett Baptist Church. Mrs Sue was the most loving, godly lady and always thought of others before herself. She was such a blessing to us. We will miss her dearly.

“ Sue is my first cousin, and she will sorely be missed by her Harper family! Sue always, ALWAYS cared to come to reunion if she could, even making the trip in the back of a pick up truck one time! I grew up with Sue and all of my "Mississippi cousins" and going to see them was a slice of heaven when I was growing up. Sue, you will be SO missed. Give Grandma and Grandpa and Uncle Wester and Aunt Christine a big hug for me, ok? I know you are rejoicing with them in the presence of our Lord!

“ Sue and I were so close! I remember one time when we went to as Premier Jewelry party together and the jewelry representative told Sue that I must be her daughter!! It was funny since she was only 5 years older than myself but we both have long salt and pepper hair and somewhat favor. From that day on I was jokingly referred to as her daughter! She had a great sense of humor. I love you Sue and will miss you!!!

“ Ms Sue was such a special lady. She always put others ahead of herself. She was there for anyone who had a need. Her Sunday School Class loved her so much. As a matter of fact, all the kids loved her. She was also a good friend. We will miss her so much but we know she is sitting at the feet of Jesus. Praying for the family.
