

Susan D. Hinckley

October 7, 1970 - July 27, 2020

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Ms. Susan D. Hinckley, 49, passed away Monday, July 27, 2020, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Southaven, MS. A private family visitation and funeral service will be held Friday, July 31, 2020, at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Interment will be at Autumn Woods Memorial Park (6240 Davidson Rd., Olive Branch, MS 38654). Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Ms. Hinckley was born October 7, 1970, in Jackson, TN. She was always a very creative person. She enjoyed ceramics, scrapbooking, and any kind of arts and crafts. Susan was also extremely family oriented, and she loved nothing more than spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren. She will be dearly missed by all those who touched her life.

Ms. Hinckley is survived by her husband, Chris Hinckley, Sr. of Horn Lake, MS; her son, Christopher (Heather) Hinckley, Jr. of Southaven; six grandsons, Brantley Joe Hinckley of Horn Lake, and Mason Hinckley of Southaven, and Dominic Tonche, Christopher Tonche, Gabriel Tonche, and Alexander Tonche, all of Memphis, TN; two God-sons, Brent Leavitt and Logan Leavitt; two God-daughters, Crystal Rose (Faustino) Tonche of Memphis, and Jennifer Leavitt of Horn Lake; her father, James Glidewell of Heber Springs, AR; her mother, Sandra Chism of Horn Lake; two brothers, Eddie Glidewell of Jackson, TN, and Dalton Glidewell of Memphis; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Donations and memorials in honor of Susan Deloris Hinckley may be made to the American Cancer Society (donate3.cancer.org).

“ Suzie (aka, Honey 😊) & I have been friends since Christopher was in grade school. I was fortunate enough to be welcomed by her entire family and spent 6 months living in their home. Over the years we became very close and intuned with each other and knew when the other needed a phone call. However, for some reason the night of her passing eluded me. Maybe because we were in touch 24hrs before and things were ok. She even laughed at a text I sent 12hrs before she passed.

She may be gone from this earth but she will NEVER be gone from my heart.

I love you Honey!

(That was how we ALWAYS said our goodbyes)

“ I loved Suzy from the moment I met her. We usually communicated through long emails over the years. Her heart was bigger than she was. I hope that she is with all the other Hinckley's gone before and she is comforted as we try to comfort each other. Rest in peace dear Suzy. Chris and Christopher and her beloved grandchildren, remember all she was and all she did, and smile. She would want that. Much love, Aunt Linda.
