“ Terry was my friend and classmate from early on when i first mved to Oxford, Mississippi, in 1970, and attended Lafayette grade school, then Jr. High. We played basketball together, and I remember how she always said the Lord's Prayer and encouraged our team to hold hands before every game & pray. I was amazed at her steadfast faith when she would tell me how her daddy took her out to help others after a tornado. After I moved away to Los Angeles, CA in 1976, each and every year since, I've always remembered her birthday today, October 3rd. I looked her up finally on Google, to discover this loving celebration of life on her behalf. How very beautiful! God bless you all! And God bless Theresa, my old friend.

Not only was she a mother to her own children adam and amanda, she was a mother to all of us in jrotc. She was a wonderful nurse and always took good care of me if I was in the hospital. ...
