“ There have been many years, and many miles between us, but I found Timmy's obituary online, and wanted to send my deepest sympathies to the Gilmore family. Timmy was my first and best Best Friend. We met when he was four, and I was three. We'd play in the sandbox all day, and join the other neighborhood kids to catch fireflies and play "Army." Timmy was the best, wonderful, sweet playmate and friend, until my family moved away in 1971. I remember all of his Tonka toys, GI Joes, and his dog, Peanut. There was never a cross word between us. I wish you all comfort and healing. I know this is a great loss. Janet McCutchen janetica85@gmail.com
