“ Tony was a very soft spoken man. I had the honor to know him for the last two years of his life. He was very fond of his family yet he did not show it very often. To be able to talk to him in an intelligent conversation, you had to be on the same level that he was, which was incredibly hard. I remember the nights when we would just sit and talk together with his mother and sister and talk about anything and everything. The last few years were rough, but I thank God I had the time to be with him. While I may not have known him his entire life, I felt very close to him in ways that I will never fully understand. He was my brother in my eyes and I will never forget the impact he made in my life. I will miss all the little things he would do, however small they may have been. His laughs and his sighs and the way that he could just make a room brighten up with just a smile. I will always remember and Love Tony Donnell Lamb, my friend and Tone-Tone

“ Tony was a good friend of mine. We had lost touch over the last few years and it saddens me that we have lost him. I will always Tony as one who had the best of personalities. He was one of the most intellectual people I knew and with that also one of the most unappreciated. My heart goes out to all his family and friends that I know will miss him dearly, Rest in peace my friend. Mark

“ I couldn't have asked for a better brother. He was an amazing, talented person. I talked to him and saw just about every single day and each day regardless of the occasion was special to me, though one of the strongest memories I have of him would be during Christmas. When he would stay all night the night before and help cook for the next day. We'd all be awake into the night talking and laughing. He would talk for hours with me and my boyfriend, help mom prepare presents and things, spend hours watching holiday movies and playing games with us, and when I was younger he would watch over me and color with me to keep me from jumping off the walls when I was excited that Santa was coming. It was a genuine warm and happy household; never did it lack in excitement or love. I will always miss my brother but for now I have to know he's without pain in a better place and I'll be able to see him again. I love you Tone-Tone<3
