“ This life is what you make it, and my buddy Tyler made it the best he could every day. I smile just thinking about some of the crazy times we had. That coldwater bottom will always hold a special place in my heart from now on because we spent so much time down there. From fishing to the time we scared the dickens out of some coyotes. And everyone knows the Beavers didn't stand a chance once you got out there. Or the time we all almost got put on the no fly list when we blew that old lawnmower about 75 feet in the air. I have a deer head on my wall that I look at and think about you because you and Billy were with me when I killed it. So many memories I have you to thank for, I will miss you buddy! I look around today and I know how many lives you've touched and how many people loved you. We will all carry a piece of you in our hearts forever. Till we meet again.

“ *approximately three weeks ago Tyler convinced an 80 year old woman to go for a ride on his side by side. We went up hills and down gullies and holding on for dear life, I still see his smiling face and him asking "Are you ok Bee?" Having lived in Yalobusha Co. for over thirty years he showed me waterfalls that I never knew were somewhere between Oakland and Water Valley. I have no Idea where we were nor could I ever find it again., Thank you Tyler for a Kodiak moment and precious memories of you and my family. I will see you again in heaven. “ Kim and family, my heart is broken for you. Tyler was one of my very favorite 2nd graders. I'll always remember that cute, blonde, shy boy, who's smile could melt you in an instant, walking into my classroom each morning, and eventually coming out of his shell. He was a joy! Our loss, but Heaven's gain! 'Praying peace and comfort for you during this difficult time. Jahnae Cherry

I am deeply sorry the loss of your loved one. I know that you can find comfort in God, even though you may be questioning Him and wondering why right now. You have to have faith that He has a Master Plan that our minds can't grasp or understand. May God be with you every step you take.

“ Tyler, while I have never had the honor to meet you personally, I do know your dad. He spoke of you (and your sister) constantly as I know he is very proud of you both. I can only imagine how good of a person you were growing up, knowing the deep faith and integrity of whom you were raised by. To the entire Brooker family, our family's thoughts & prayers are with you during this very difficult time. I am very sorry.

My husband, Allen, and my daughter, Bethany, & I knew Tyler from his time spent down In Oakland, MS. Both Tyler & Jessica were so much a part of everything we did while at the Guthries. Tyler never had a frown on his face. He was such a happy person who had contagious enthusiasm! Making you laugh as soon as he entered a room! Wish we had known him longer, because he was a true joy to be around. Our prayers and thoughts are with the Brooker family and Jessica.
