“ The thing I will always remember about Wanda was her smile and her laugh. When she got tickled at something she would laugh with everything she had. I was never fake, just the most awesome laugh. Her smile would light up the room. She was such a beautiful lady, inside and out.

I have missed talking to her for the past few years, due to her illness. I just know she is finally at peace.

I wish I could come to her service, but it just isn't possible right now. My sympathy to your family.

Aunt Wanda was always very welcoming into her home and enjoyed a big family get together more than anything I believe. Her smile was the biggest and brightest you've ever seen and her laughter was infectious. Visiting with her was always a highlight of a trip to Memphis/Mississippi. She is loved and will surely be missed by her family.

“ I worked with both of Wanda’s daughters at Blockbuster Video back in the 90’s. I always enjoyed when she came into the store. She was always so sweet and she was so funny too. I just loved her laugh. Prayers to all her family and friends that know and love her.
