Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Wilbur Lee Todd, 89, died June 25, 2013 at his home at Traceway Manor in Tupelo, MS.

Wilbur Lee was born in Lambert, MS to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ernest Todd. He attended Oxford Elementary and University High School in Oxford, graduating in 1942. He served in World War II in the European Theatre of Operations. After serving in the military, he earned a BBA and a MBA in business at Ole Miss. He married the love of his life, Virginia McArthur, who preceded him in death, on December 12, 1964. He retired in 1986 as a supervisor with the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation. He is an Elder Emeritus at the First Presbyterian Church in Oxford. A lifelong Ole Miss Rebel, he enjoyed life to the fullest. He loved writing and sharing his life stories. He will be remembered for his vibrant personality, his integrity, his love of family and zest for life.

Wilbur Lee was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; his brother, Jimmy Todd, and two sisters, Charlotte Parker and Sarah Johnson.

He is survived by his daughter Lee Ann Davidson and husband Lee of Amory; his son, Robert Todd and wife Wren of Asheville, NC; a sister, Marinell Rector of Hendersonville, NC; two brothers-in-law, Paul Parker of Water Valley and Irvin McArthur and wife Margaret of Colorado; two sisters-in-law Maxie McArthur of Maryville, TN and Margaret McArthur of Rock Hill, SC; three grandchildren, Jessica Leigh and Bryce Todd Davidson and Dashiell McArthur Todd; and a host of nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Witness to the Resurrection service will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Oxford on June 29, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. The Reverends John Semmes, Ann Kelly, and Wil Howie will officiate. Visitation will be held prior to the service beginning at 12:00.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Living Waters of the World, First Presbyterian Church, Oxford, MS.
