“ I first met you on a baseball field 50+ years ago. We formed a life long friendship as we chase our dreams of the big league. We each took different paths in life and we each went our separate ways. Fast forward fifty years and our paths crossed again and the friendship from so long ago was still there. In my memory you will always bet that young boy on that hot summer baseball field that we both enjoyed so much and my heart you will always be that friend I made fifty + years ago
