Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

William James Jefferies Jr., 50, passed away on April 19, 2026 at his residence in Oxford, Mississippi.

A visitation will be on Thursday, April 23, 2026 from 12:00 p.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Bethel Baptist Church (445 Bethel Church Road, Fulton, MS, 38843). A memorial service will immediately follow on Thursday, April 23, 2026 at 1:00 p.m. also at Bethel Baptist Church with Bro. Tracy McMillen officiating.

William was born on December 23, 1975 in Jackson, Mississippi, to Martha Bailey Duncan, and the late William James Jefferies Sr.

Known for his boundless enthusiasm for the great outdoors, William was an avid camper and hiker who found solace and joy among the trees, mountains, and streams. His love for nature was matched only by his skill as a fisherman, often seen with a rod in hand, embracing the peaceful rhythm of a day on the water.

William had a deep and abiding love for animals of every kind. Whether he was caring for a beloved pet or simply admiring wildlife in nature, his compassion extended to all creatures, great and small. His gentle spirit and kindness toward animals were evident throughout his life, leaving a legacy of empathy and respect for the natural world.

William's adventurous spirit extended beyond the wilderness; he was passionate about traveling, eagerly exploring new places and cultures with an open heart and curious mind. At home, he was a professional in the world of computers. His expertise and dedication set him apart, and he was always willing to lend a helping hand or solve a technical mystery.

A devoted reader, William delighted in the world of books, finding inspiration and comfort in the written word. Yet, for all his passions, nothing brought him greater happiness than spending time with his friends and family. His love for his wife and daughter was profound, and some of his happiest moments were spent dancing with them, creating memories filled with laughter and warmth.

William Jefferies will be remembered for his adventurous heart, generous spirit, and unwavering devotion to those he loved. His presence will be deeply missed, but the memories he created will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

He is survived by his loving wife, Dana Jefferies of Oxford; his daughter, Katelyn Paige Jefferies of Oxford; his son, Trey Parker III of Oxford; his sister, Dawn Cagle (Vern) of Fulton, MS; his brother, Scott Jefferies (Kelly) of Southaven, MS; his mother, Martha Bailey Duncan of Baldwyn, MS; and Dylan Nicholson of Oxford, who was loved just like a son.

William is preceded in death by his father, William James Jefferies Sr.

The staff at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is honored to serve the family during this challenging season of life. Condolences may be expressed online on his Tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeox.com.
