

William David Langston

October 25, 1953 - May 9, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

William David Langston, 68, passed away Monday, May 9, 2022. There are no services planned at this time. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

William is described by his family as being one of a kind with a very unique personality. He was known to be a very hard worker while being a devoted father and grandfather. When not at work, William would be enjoying a dirt race or the simplicity of the outdoors where he got to embody his calling for being a simple man. He enjoyed days spent with family, especially the grandchildren. William will be missed by all those who loved and cherished him.

He is survived by his son, Daniel Lee Langston; his daughter, Jeceka Langston; his grandchildren, Noah Earl Warren, Hunter Lee Crain, Sheldon Tyler Langston, Reagan Elizabeth Langston, and Payton Links Langston; his siblings, Roberta Bennett, Linda Gamblin, Rebecca Sutherland, and Patrick Langston.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Vickie Westmoreland Langston and his parents, James Henry and Dorothy Frances Langston.

Please leave online condolences on his Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ My condolences to the family

J M Kirkland - May 19, 2022 at 10:44 AM

RS

Thank you for your kind words. Means a lot to the family.

rebecca sutherland - March 22, 2023 at 10:30 PM