

William Roy Young Jr.

November 10, 2011

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

William Roy “Coach” Young, Jr., 73, died at his home with his family at his side, Oxford, MS, Thursday, November 10, 2011.

Coach Young worked in education in Lafayette County for 42 years. He was a coach at Yocona and Lafayette High Schools. At Lafayette, he was a teacher, coach, counselor and Superintendent of Education. He was responsible for the Oxford-Lafayette NWCC campus being built in Oxford, MS. He served at the Oxford NWCC Center as their counselor until his retirement.

Visitation will be held Saturday, November 12, 2011, 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home. Funeral services will follow at 2:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. John W. Stewart officiating. Interment will be in the Poplar Springs Cemetery, Calhoun County, MS. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include his wife, Sue Kirkpatrick Young of Oxford, MS; three daughters, Vickie Sue (Dr. Ricky) Parker of Tupelo, MS, Rhonda Ann (Lance) Hickman of Oxford, MS, Mary Elizabeth “Marybeth” (Jay) Lowrey of Oxford, MS; one son, Bobby (Suzanne) Young of Etta, MS; seven grandchildren, Kathryn Ellen “Katie” Parker, Margaret Grace “Maggie” Parker, and Rebecca Paige "Becky" Parker all of Tupelo, MS, Jason Norman Hickman of Oxford, MS, Justin Robert Young of Houston, TX, William Ross "Will" Young of Etta, MS, and Elizabeth Anne (Khurram) Moghal of Senoia, GA. .

His parents Roy and Corrine Young of Houlka, MS preceded Mr. Young in death.

Coach Young, Daddy and Papaw will be missed greatly by all who knew him.

Charitable contributions can be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Online memorials may be left at www.colemanfuneralhome.com