

Willie J. McGuirt

December 8, 1947 - February 4, 2021

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Willie J. McGuirt, 73, passed away Thursday, February 4, 2021, in Tupelo, MS. A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, February 10, 2021, at Brown Chapel Cemetery in Oxford, MS, at 12:00 p.m. Rev. Anthony Ruffin will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. McGuirt was born to Louella Perry and the late Doil McGuirt in Oxford, MS. He was married to Patricia McGuirt, and was a true family man who will be intensely missed by all his family and friends.

Mr. McGuirt was a very hard worker who always provided for his family. At one time he worked three jobs so he could support them. He cared for and loved his family unconditionally and without ceasing.

Willie was also very devout in his relationship with God. He always showed compassion and displayed his Christian demeanor wherever he went. His son described his dad's faith as being unbelievable. Willie was always willing to help out others, whatever their need might be.

When Willie wasn't reading his Bible or helping others, you might find him watching football or hunting. He was a "die hard" football fan with the Philadelphia Eagles being his favorite team.

Mr. McGuirt is survived by his wife, Patricia McGuirt, of Oxford, MS; four sons, Darius (Ajanta) McGuirt, of Saltillo, MS, Trevor McGuirt, of Oxford, MS, Terence (Usheryll) McGuirt, of Tupelo, MS, and Alvin Houston, of Memphis, TN; one extended son, Jeff Burt, of Memphis, TN; a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren; his mother Louella Perry, of Alorton, IL; two sisters, Audrey Kay Perry, of Belleville, IL, and Melissa McGuirt, of South Carolina; two brothers, David (Kathy) Perry Jr., of O'Fallon, IL, and Larry Perry, of Alorton, IL; and a best friend, George Smith, of Abbeville, MS.

Mr. McGuirt was preceded in death by his father, Doil McGuirt; and one son, Tracy McGuirt.
