“ Me and Zack traveled many miles together going to see our favorite bands, music festivals, hiking trips all over the south from New Orleans to The smoky mountains.

He loved to talk about all sorts of cool and interesting stuff like ancient history, conspiracy theories, and just life and death and what it all means.

Zack was a unique fun loving guy that lived life to the fullest and was not afraid to be himself and pursue the things that he was inspired by.

I know he is in good company up there with our friends and family that have already made that transition also.

Util we meet again, I miss ya buddy

“ My beautiful son. My first born. Zachery and his younger brother Jamin would always compete on who would give me a granddaughter first. He provided the first grandchild which is a boy. Then Jamin had two boys. We had given up on a girl then Zachery provided the first granddaughter. He won the competition. Now he beat us to Heaven. I miss him desperately. He touched so many lives especially mine. I can't wait to see you again Zachery. Life will never be the same. I love you.

“ I love you so much brother you treated me like family from the day we met. You have the kindest heart and has the sense of humor that can turn anyone’s day around . Your love for Widespread Panic and live music was awesome. You got me into so much good music. All the good memories we have definitely out weigh any bad. This is not the end and one day we all will be reunited I love you Zachery Smith to the moon and back .
